A romantic couple is walking hand-in-hand on a cobblestone street in Madrid. The woman is wearing a green patterned dress and carrying a tan bag, while the man is in a dark blue t-shirt and light-colored trousers. They are walking past a cafe with a white awning that says 'QUINTIN'. The background features historic buildings, including one with a sign that says 'LE PETIT PALACE', and lush greenery. The scene is bathed in warm, golden light, suggesting late afternoon or early morning.

Duzdag's soothing salt caves

Salt therapies are offered in many health resorts in Azerbaijan, but for the most authentic experience head to Duzdag, a former salt mine turned physiotherapy centre. Research and archaeological finds have proven that salt was extracted in Nakhchivan as early as the Eneolithic period. Salt was exported from here along the Silk Road, and today this gift of Nakhchivan's nature is also being used for medical purposes.

Located 12km from Nakhchivan city, Duzdag, which translates as 'Salt Mountain', is an old salt mine which since 1979 has functioned as a pioneering physiotherapy centre in the use of speleotherapy to alleviate respiratory diseases. Today the Duzdag Physiotherapy Centre treats diseases such as bronchial asthma, chronic bronchitis, pollinosis, allergic rhinitis in salt caves at a depth of 110 metres. Patients spend the night in comfy rooms located along the former mining tunnels and breathe in the healing salt to improve lung function. Tourists are welcome to come and explore the atmospheric tunnels and spend some time imbibing the salty air. Meanwhile, the Duzdag Hotel, located 2km from the physiotherapy centre, offers indoor and outdoor swimming pools, a spa and wellness centre, restaurant and bar, in addition to pleasant rooms. There's also an on-site Salt Museum where you can browse some interesting salt-themed exhibits.

Health and wellness experiences in Lankaran

Nestled between the Caspian Sea and the Talysh Mountains, Lankaran has plenty of natural beauty. Moreover, the area is home to numerous hot springs where locals have been healing themselves for centuries. Nature in this subtropical corner of Azerbaijan isn't just pleasing on the eye, but also naturally therapeutic. Scattered throughout the region are thermal water springs (called 'istisu' in Azerbaijani) that have long been used by the local population to cure all sorts of ailments. They tend to be very simple sanatoriums offering bathing booths filled with the hot, mineral-rich water flowing naturally from underground. Bathing in these is surprisingly relaxing, but the village of Haftoni has taken the procedure to an entirely new level. A popular sanatorium opened around the many hot springs here way back in 1958 and became a hit with Soviet health seekers. However, since summer 2019 the village is home to the luxurious Lankaran Springs Wellness Resort.

Milano, more than a trip.

A lifestyle

Unforgettable Summer

The city of Milano welcomes tourists from the GCC with new experiential itineraries amongst its most iconic streets

Milan is among the top global tourism destinations in 2025

This summer Milano is offering an unparalleled variety of experiences via its new campaign "Milano, more than a trip. A lifestyle." Promoting itself as not just a destination but an entire experience, the city of Milan invites tourists to savour the 'good life' through its Milanese neighbourhoods and the opportunities each one offers in terms of cultural, gastronomic and multiple entertainment experiences including concerts by Taylor Swift, Nicki Minaj, Avril Lavigne, Doja Cat and BigMama to name a few.

But it is really the different districts, each with their own intrinsic characteristics and lively streets that make Milano special. From Porta Romana passing through Porta Venezia, strolling through the streets of Brera until one reaches Parco Sempione or Isola - each neighbourhood has its own stories to tell, hidden gems waiting to be discovered and a rich programme of activities for everyone.

This summer Milano has decided to highlight the spirit and the authenticity of each corner through a campaign intended to promote different itineraries in 7 neighbourhoods of the city. Unique and evocative routes invite tourists to explore every nook and corner of the city, beyond the traditional beaten paths, to admire the majestic historical monuments and the picturesque avenues, passing through the animated squares tickling the senses with colours and taste of Milanese life. A unique experience aimed to permanently and fondly touch hearts of those who choose Milano for their summer holidays.

Unmissable are the Navigli canals, a cornerstone of the Milanese summer experience both day and night. At sunset, stop at one of the countless bars on the canal, or the adjacent Darsena for the popular Milanese aperitif experience. Another must-see is the Vicolo dei Lavandai, an iconic view that tells of a foregone era, while every last Sunday of the month is the famed antique market.

Just a few steps away from the Duomo, one heads to Brera, a hub of artists in Milano where the Pinacoteca is located and hosts unique masterpieces of the likes of Hayez, Caravaggio, Mantegna and Raffaello. Wandering through the cobblestone alleys, this neighbourhood exudes art everywhere: gardens, small artisan shops, perfume workshops, cafés and bistros, markets, and many courtyards to admire behind the doors of historic buildings. Must-see points are the Orto Botanico, the cloisters of San Marco and San Simpliciano - two churches steeped in history, or a coffee at bar Jamaica where one can experience a more intellectual and bo-bo atmosphere.

Milano boasts not only a historical side, but also a more international one: Porta Romana is the neighbourhood that welcomes international students given the presence of Università Bocconi and the university's campus. Once past the Spanish walls dating back to the 1500s, one emerges in a neighbourhood replete with numerous restaurants, wine bars, kiosks, and cafés offering meals and aperitifs to suit any palate and confirming itself as the renowned food district of the city. A key stop is Fondazione Prada, one of the most innovative cultural institutions hosting also Cinema Godard, showcasing films in original language. Summer is not complete without a refreshing stop at the outdoor pools Bagni Misteriosi, and the theatre Teatro Franco Parenti. Finally, Porta Romana is the city undergoing the most rapid transformation for the Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games Milano Cortina 2026, given the Olympic village will be nestled in this neighbourhood.

Multiethnic Porta Venezia is the most open and inclusive of neighbourhoods in which the freedom to express oneself is welcome. It is also the neighbourhood characterised by Liberty architecture, inviting tourists to explore fascinating historic buildings and modernist villas such as Villa Necchi Campiglio o Villa Invernizzi hosting a colony of pink flamingos. Brimming with artistic locations, Porta Venezia is an eclectic neighbourhood hosting the Museo Civico di Storia Naturale (Museum of natural history), il Museo d'Arte, Fondazione Luigi Rovati and the GAM – Galleria di Arte Moderna that hosts the paintings il "Quarto Stato" by Giuseppe Pellizza da Volpedo, and "Lullaby" by Maurizio Cattelan.

The mix of styles and cultures continues through to Chinatown, a neighbourhood that develops north of the city centre, through the Cimitero Monumentale and Corso Sempione, with an energy and vibe that must be experienced. The beating heart of Chinatown is Via Paolo Sarpi where oriental street food reigns sovereign. Here one can experience a Milano that is a melting pot of different cultures, tasting something new for dinner or having fun with Chinese karaoke.

Another unmissable neighbourhood is Isola, a newer, younger neighbourhood with a lively nightlife scene. Life in Isola alternates between tradition and modernity. Strolling through the skyscrapers of Porta Nuova, one remains in awe in front of the award-winning, architectural masterpiece Bosco Verticale, or BAM, la Biblioteca degli Alberi, a carefully planned garden with over 100 botanical species. The skyscrapers mark the skyline until Piazza Gae Aulenti where one "walks" over water in the middle of the square. The modernity of Isola meets tradition in the artisan shops in Via Borsieri and Via Thaon de Revel, or by the sanctuary of Santa Maria alla Fontana.

Milano's skyline has evolved over time, thanks to the three skyscrapers Hadid, Libeskin, and Isozaki that tower over CityLife, a Shopping District with luxury buildings and condominiums, and ArtLine, a vast park in which to wander through sculptures and contemporary installations.

Milano in the summer season proves to be welcoming and both thrilling and relaxing, offering a wide array of experiences in every corner of the city.

Each neighbourhood finds its way of living summer thanks to the energy of those that make it come alive, making Milano an irresistible destination even in the summer months.

AUSTRIA

A summer journey through timeless landscapes and historic sites

Austria is a compelling destination for GCC travellers yearning for a unique summer retreat. Nestled in the heart of Europe, this country weaves together the beauty of nature and the richness of culture, offering a laidback yet vibrant setting for a summer escape. Austria's moderate climate during these months presents the perfect opportunity to explore its diverse landscapes and historical treasures without the harsh weather extremes, making every visit comfortable and enjoyable.

One of Austria's most breathtaking experiences is the drive along the Grossglockner High Alpine Road. Renowned as Europe's most beautiful panoramic road, it unfurls through the Hohe Tauern National Park, offering unparalleled views of the Austrian Alps, the majestic Pasterze Glacier, and an array of Alpine wildlife. This road not only connects visitors with nature through numerous lookout points and exhibitions but also serves as a gateway to observing marmots and ibex in their natural habitat, set against the backdrop of Austria's highest peaks and most serene valleys.

Equally enchanting is the Eisriesenwelt, a marvel hidden within the Tennengebirge mountain range. As the world's largest ice cave, it extends over 42 kilometres, presenting a labyrinth of ice formations that whisper tales of a thousand years. The guided tours through this icy realm reveal stunning crystals, frozen waterfalls, and towering sculptures, all illuminated to showcase their ethereal beauty, offering a glimpse into a frozen world that feels entirely removed from the warmth of summer.

Not far from the tranquillity of ice, the Krimmler Waterfalls offer a dynamic contrast with their beauty. As Europe's highest waterfalls, they cascade from heights of 380 meters, creating a spectacle that captivates all who visit. The waterfall trail allows for leisurely hikes, where the mist of falling water refreshes and the sound envelops visitors in a natural symphony, enhancing the experience of Austria's pristine landscapes.

Lastly, the imperial splendour of Schönbrunn Palace in Vienna encapsulates Austria's cultural heritage. Once the summer residence of Habsburg monarchs, the palace now opens its doors to reveal a world of extravagant beauty, extensive gardens, and the world's oldest zoo. Housing over 700 species, the zoo is a testament to the palace's longstanding commitment to conservation and education, providing a fascinating day out for families and history enthusiasts alike.

Beyond the visual and historical allure, Austria captivates the senses with its culinary offerings. From the iconic Wiener Schnitzel to the sweet delight of Kaiserschmarrn, the country's cuisine reflects its cultural diversity and agricultural richness. Traditional dishes, served with a contemporary flair, ensure that each meal is a celebration of Austrian hospitality.

With convenient direct flights to Vienna and Salzburg, along with an efficient public transportation system, accessing these quintessentially Austrian experiences is easier than ever for GCC travellers. Whether it's the serenity of the Alps, the depth of historical mines, or the culinary delights, Austria promises an unforgettable summer holiday, rich in experiences and steeped in the warmth of its hospitality.

Fall in love in MOSCOW

Ideas for an unforgettable date in the heart of Russia

Moscow is good not only for business trips, but also for unforgettable romantic experiences. It has a rich history, amazing architecture, luxurious restaurants and plenty of ideas for a journey with your beloved one.

What first comes to your mind while thinking about the best place for a date? A restaurant, of course. In Moscow you can choose a treat for every taste. The connoisseurs of fine cuisine can visit one of the restaurants listed in the Michelin guide: Artest Chef's table, Twins Garden, Beluga, Biologie, Grand Cru, Savva, Selfie, White Rabbit and Sakhalin. Those who like to enjoy a beautiful view of the city during a romantic dinner should pay attention to the stylish restaurant O2 Lounge (Carlton Hotel) or restaurant Buono in the famous Stalinist high-rise (Radisson Royal). Lovers of exquisite interiors will also appreciate the restaurant "Boat" reminding an expensive yacht, elegant "White" with references to the Silver Age, two-story "Mansard" with panoramic windows and the atmosphere of "The Great Gatsby" and luxurious "Parisien" with royal spirit.

If you happen to be in Moscow during spring or summer seasons, visiting parks and estates is a "must" for couples to enjoy outdoor romance.

Kuskovo estate with its neoclassical architecture has preserved the atmosphere of a holiday with a swing. The Arkhangelskoye estate, a great example of Russian manor art of the XVIII-XIX centuries, is a wonderful place for walks or romantic photo sessions. Dubrovitsy estate is a hidden gem near Moscow: quiet and peaceful location with an old church in a baroque style.

Tsaritsyno is well-known for its magnificent palace complexes and huge park with ponds, bridges and sculptures which you can explore. Kolomenskoye is the oldest manor with a unique park ensemble and a church of the 16th century included in the UNESCO heritage list. In May the park becomes a place of tourist pilgrimage as more than 1000 trees bloom simultaneously.

Already feeling blown away by a romantic atmosphere and ready for a wedding ceremony? In Moscow there are plenty of professional wedding agencies with a high level of service, which will help to organize your once-in-a-lifetime celebration. Despite the stereotypical view of Moscow as the cold capital in every way possible, in reality it has one of the most favorable atmospheres for a romantic date or even a wedding trip thanks to its architecture, nature and open-hearted people!. If you dream of saying "yes" in an old mansion or cable car, on a football stadium or in a dim metro station, why not do it in Moscow?
